FUNDING: PRIORITIZE SPECIAL EDUCATION IN FY 2024
 Infants, toddlers, children, and youth with disabilities and/or gifts and talents participate in and benefit from all federal public education and early childhood programs. A strong federal investment in programs that provide targeted support is critical to ensuring their...

Help Rebuild the Educator Shortage
 The shortage of special educators is at a breaking point. In recent years, 48 states and the District of Columbia reported shortages of special education teachers and specialized instructional support personnel. We must work together with Congress to ensure every student...

Ensure School-Based Mental Health Services
 Meeting the mental health needs of infants, toddlers, children, and youth is critical to supporting their education and development. Ensuring access to high-quality social-emotional learning programs and mental health services and supports is contingent on having dedicated...
